Practice Areas

Mingguo Zhu specializes in legal matters such as criminal risk prevention and control (criminal compliance), intellectual property, investment and mergers & acquisitions, legal advisory services, and dispute resolution.

After years of study and professional experience, I have not only developed expertise in civil and commercial intellectual property law matters but also accumulated extensive management experience in foreign-invested enterprises and listed companies. This background provides me with distinctive insights into corporate operations and management. I possess a solid theoretical legal foundation and strong professional competence, coupled with a high sense of commitment and extensive case-handling experience. Through broad vision, proactive thinking, rigorous logic, and a steady approach, I have earned the trust of clients. I am also consistently dedicated to public welfare initiatives and actively contribute to society.

Work Experience

Mingguo Zhu joined Global Law Office in 2026. Prior to this, he practiced at another renowned law firm, where he provided legal services in the areas of criminal risk prevention and control, criminal compliance, intellectual property, investment and M&A, as well as dispute resolution.
