Practice Areas

Nanling Chen specializes in dispute resolution, banking and finance, compliance and risk management.

In the field of dispute resolution, Nanling Chen excels in handling complex civil and commercial cases, particularly those related to banking and finance disputes. Throughout case management, Nanling Chen integrates financial regulatory and compliance requirements to provide targeted advice for clients' business operations.

With extensive courtroom experience in the Supreme People's Court, provincial high courts, and local courts, Nanling Chen has expertise in preservation and execution. Representative cases include representing a commercial bank in resolving a financial loan contract dispute with a technology group, assisting a client in successfully disposing of shares of a listed company and recovering over 1 billion RMB, and handling a construction contract dispute for a steel group, resulting in a mediated settlement that reduced client losses by 116 million RMB. Another significant achievement involved handling an execution objection dispute arising from entrusted loans between a commercial bank and a Shanghai-based company.

In the banking and finance sector, Nanling Chen provides legal advisory services to multiple banks, financial institutions, and regulatory authorities. She actively engages in the design of innovative business structures and significant risk mitigation projects for banking and financial institutions.
