Practice Areas

Shihan Yang is an of counsel of Global Law Office based in Beijing and specialized in dispute resolution in the fields of trust and asset management, PE/VC, hotel management, and real estate.

Shihan Yang has represented clients in a variety of civil and commercial disputes and civil enforcement proceedings, and has rich experience in the investment and financing and pan-financial fields, including: representing the actual controller of a listed company in handling disputes over a credit enhancement agreement (with a disputed amount of approximately 900 million RMB); representing the actual controller of a listed company in handling disputes with an asset management plan (with a disputed amount of approximately 200 million RMB); representing various entities such as investors, target companies, actual controllers, guarantors and other parties in handling disputes over equity repurchase contracts; representing different fund investors, fund managers, and fund custodians in handling disputes over fund contracts; representing a leading and well-known securities company in handling disputes over stock pledge-style financing contracts (with a disputed amount of approximately 200 million RMB); representing a bank in handling disputes over financial loan contracts (with a disputed amount over one billion RMB).

Shihan Yang also has rich experience in the fields of hotel and real estate management, and corresponding dispute resolution. He has participated in over ten projects between international hotel management companies and domestic developers, assisting developers in the process of preliminary contract consultations and negotiations and handling some disputes. He has represented the owner of a landmark hotel in Xinjiang, a subsidiary of a listed company in Guizhou, and the owner of a well-known hotel in Zhejiang in arbitration cases and dispute resolution matters regarding hotel management contracts. He has also represented the owner of a commercial complex and represented a Japanese materials enterprise in arbitration cases.

Besides, Shihan Yang provides legal advisory services for many state-owned enterprises, scientific research institutes, and listed companies.
