Practice Areas

Yue Qian specializes in private equity and venture capital, private funds, dispute resolution, mergers and acquisitions, state-owned asset supervision, capital markets, and comprehensive corporate governance services. With more than 10 years of practical legal experience, she excels in handling complex transactions and challenging commercial legal matters, and is proficient in the full life cycle of private funds – fundraising, investment, management, and exit. She provides clients with integrated and effective legal solutions from both non-litigation and litigation/arbitration perspectives.

Yue Qian has long been deeply engaged in private equity, venture capital, equity structure design, and M&A transactions. She has represented numerous well-known investment institutions, state-owned enterprises, and founders in a wide range of transactions, including equity, debt, mezzanine investments, restructurings, and PPP projects, providing comprehensive legal services covering transaction structure design, due diligence, transaction document drafting, and commercial negotiation. The clients she serves span industries including new energy, new materials, high-end manufacturing, TMT, environmental protection, data centers, catering, food, healthcare, infrastructure, and real estate.

In the private fund sector, Yue Qian possesses extensive practical expertise. She has assisted multiple investment institutions in completing the initial registration and material changes of private fund managers, and led the establishment of various types of private funds. The clients she serves include QDLP/QFLP managers, private equity fund managers, and private securities fund managers, and she is well-versed in the establishment, operation, and compliance of various fund structures.

Yue Qian is proficient in dispute resolution and has represented a large number of investment institutions, industrial enterprises, private funds, and high-net-worth individuals in handling major and complex commercial disputes involving corporate governance, equity investment, equity repurchase, and various types of commercial disputes.

In addition, Yue Qian has extensive experience in providing legal services for the daily operation, comprehensive governance, compliance and risk control of investment institutions, financial institutions, state-owned enterprises, industrial companies and other enterprises.
